Orders are subject to cancellation, partial cancellation or change only with the consent of the Seller and only upon such terms as the Seller may impose. Should Buyer terminate, cancel, or stop its order, in whole or in part without

Prices are set on the basis of the total quantity ordered, even though shipment may be in stages. Cancellation of a portion of an order after an earlier portion has been shipped and invoiced will result in an adjustment to the purchase price and an additional charge to the Buyer. At a minimum the cancellation charges will be 35% of the purchase price after order entry or 80% of the purchase price if the order has been released. The minimum cancellation charges supersede all other calculations which will be the basis for the minimum cancellation charges.
